Dear Brethren in Christ,

The next Caribbean Brethren Assemblies Conference is scheduled for July 17th to 21st, 2017 at the Cascadia Hotel, St. Anns, Port-of-Spain, Trinidad. The theme of the conference is 'Moving Forward Together' (Ephesians 4: 3). The objectives of the conference are:

- To enable workers from across the region to seek the Lord together
- To enable workers from across the region to discover and encourage one another
- To strengthen networking and fellowship
- To raise awareness of the spiritual challenges of current trends and cultural developments
- To share practical experience, ideas and methods
- To encourage younger workers

Our main speakers are Loris Heywood (Guyana), David Corbin (T&T/Jamaica/USA), Neil Summerton (UK), and David Henry (Jamaica). There will be workshops on a number of subjects: leadership, domestic violence, homosexuality, outreach and evangelism, ministering to young people, preaching, marriage and family life, ministering to survivors of childhood sexual abuse, empowering and equipping women for ministry, disaster management, the use of technology in ministry, etc. The evening sessions will feature special reports as well as presentations by persons involved in various ministries. One of these evening sessions will be specially dedicated to our youth.

This is a conference for all believers with an interest in the development of the Lord's work among the Brethren in the Caribbean. We are hoping to bring together, at least, three hundred persons from eighteen territories. Every effort has been made to keep the cost of the conference affordable in order to facilitate the widest possible participation. The total cost per participant for accommodation and meals is as follows: US$560.00 (single occupancy), UU$410.00 (double occupancy), US$380.00 (triple occupancy), and US$340.00 (quadruple occupancy).

In view of the foregoing, we are seeking contributions from individuals, churches and organizations to help us defray conference expenses (e.g., covering costs for our main speakers) and subsidize attendance by full-time workers. Those who are led of the Lord to partner with us may send their contributions to Christian Assemblies Camps, 14 Cajuca Street, Morvant, Trinidad. Please include a cover note indicating that the money is for CBAC 2017. No gift is too small.

Yours on behalf of CBACC,

Bro. Carl Scharschmidt

(Secretary –CBACC)

Bro. Hadyn Marshall

(Chairman –CBACC)
